Vonda, to a sweet girl that I don't know that I well. I hope that to know you better next year, maybe we'll have some classes together!
Best of Luck

p.s. that was a shelly beautiful tan that you brought home with you from Fla.

THE BEGINNING

This is the carefree life,
Nothing to worry about,
It is fun to catch the bus,
And to work and play at school,
But as we get older things will change.

We dedicate the yearbook this year to Stan Talbot who has been our class advisor for four years. With his help we finally succeeded in getting this year's yearbook out. Thanks, Tiger.

Dedication

We would like to extend special thanks to Mike Novick. Without him, this book would not have been possible. We really appreciate it Mike.

NOTHING GOLD CAN STAY

Nature's first green is gold,
Her hardest hue to hold.
Her early leaf's a flower;
But only so an hour.
Then leaf subsides to leaf.
So Eden sank to grief,
So dawn goes down to day.
Nothing gold can stay.

ALWAYS FINISH

It a task is once begun Never leave it til it's done.
Be the labor great or small,
Do it well or not at all.

UNKNOWN

Live, love, laugh . . .
and be happy!

DON'T QUIT

When things go wrong, as they sometimes will,
When the road you're trudging seems all up hill, When the funds are low and the debts are high,
And you want to smile, but you have to sigh,
When care is pressing you down a bit,
Rest, if you must - but don't you quit.

IN MY LIFE

There are places I remember all my life.
Though some have changed,
Some forever, not for better,
Some have gone and some remain.
All these places had their moments
With lovers and friends I still can recall.
Some are dead and some are living.
In my life I've loved them all.
But of all these friends and lovers,
There is no one compares with you,
And these mem'ries lose their meaning
When I think of Love as something new.
Though I know I'll never lose affection
For people and things that went before,
I know I'll often stop and think about them,
In my life I'll love you more.

LIKE A CHILD

Like a child I just sat in the sunlight and played with the minutes as they went running by.
Like a child who had never known sorrow
I didn't hurry tomorrow I just looked at the sky.
While the clouds on their long voyage home seemed to say that youth is everlasting but a rose cannot grow alone.

Now the clouds are going forever here awhile then gone evermore and a child on the far side of never has to run when time closes the door.

Take my hand and together we'll look now like a child for the little lost clouds.

I left Orford High at the end of 1973 to enter The National Guards. I really did enjoy the time I spent in the Guards but I sure missed my friends back home, too. As my time was coming to an end in the Guards I very seriously thought of returning to school.

When I returned home I enrolled myself in the class of 1975 at Orford High School which was definitely the right decision. It is great to be back with all my friends in this area. I would like to thank everyone who has helped me here at O.H.S.

Prognostication?

THAT TIME OF LOVING

That time of loving may not come again
And so I've saved the old loves
One by one
To call back when the leaves fall down
And winter covers all the town
And now is next to nothing Compared to where I've been.

That time of loving may not come again
Or if it does it might not be the same
The loves remembered, those that last
Have caught me living in the past
For now is next to nothing
Compared to where I've been
And that time of loving may not come Again.

I'M GOING TO BE A TEENAGE IDOL

Well it makes me laugh
 Lord it makes me cry,
 And I think for once,
 Let me just get high,
 Let me get electric put a silk suit on,
 Turn my old guitar into a tommy gun.

And root, toot, shoot, myself to fame,
 Every kid alive
 gonna know my name,
 An overnight phenomenon, like there's never been A motivated supersonic king of the scene,

And so I pray
 to the teenage god of rock, If I make it big let me stay on top,
 You gotta cut me loose from this one room dive, Put me on the ladder keep this boy alive.

THE END

And this is the end;
or is it?
To consider this the end
Would be like surrendering to life.
This is just the beginning of what are bound to be full and happy lives.
